NEIL FAVILA

FAVILA

"Joie de verve is a hallmark of Neil Favila's photography - a joyful exuberance for people and life that permeates within his images. Neil's work emanates from a sustained love of discovery, as much as picture making, and this is evident whether he is making commercial fashion photographs, editorial photography, or just hanging out with friends. If art and life mimic each other, their full expression is through the continuum of a sustained and coherent vision, such as Favila's.
- Thomas McGovern, Professor of Art"

THE RAINCATS

THEE RAIN CATS

Formed in late 2011, former My Pet Saddle members Caleb Palomo and Miguel Gomez went on to record a shit load of demos as they felt like taking it to a new musical dimension. With influences like The Cars, XTC, and the whole new wave movement blended with Michael Jackson/hip hop kaleidoscope beats heard from samples and/or glam funk bands like Parliament bumpin' in lowriders in the latino community. The boys had something new brewing up in there brick-house rehearsal garage in Anaheim,CA.
They plotted out what they needed : synth-space melodies and dreamy pop sounds. They recruited local homies Nelson Rodriquez on drums, Patrick Palomo (Caleb's own Apache blood brother) and joined up before going on to record an EP in the studio. Already opening for acid rockers, The Growlers, Unknown Mortal Orchestra, Mac Demarco, The Soft Pack and playing the local festivities , the crowd is definitely in awe for something different coming out of Orange County. This summer's lookin' like brass monkeys, some pr's and a copy of Thee Rain Cats EP (out now on Burger Records!) blastin' out your shitty stereo!

Ambig proudly supports local and regional music communities providing merch and tour support for such bands and labels as Hindu Pirates, Blackfeet Braves, Audacity, The Cold Desert, Burger Records, and more!
