blanquet

Multimedia french artist Stéphane Blanquet is a prolific figure in the contemporary art scene since the end of the 1980s.

He creates and is involved in the graphzine scene, art installations, artwork, urban art, animation movies, theater, books, publishing, art direction...

The 3D movie Creature from the Black Lagoon he watched on TV when he was a kid had a strong impact on him. Since then, he has been strongly interested by the myths and codes of popular culture: illustrated magazines, joke shops, magic tricks, optical illusions and fairground art.

Blanquet is very active both as an artist and a publisher and became one of the leaders of the underground art scene.

Kim Chapiron

Along with Romain Gavras, Kim Chapiron launched the collective Kourtrajmé in 1995 through which he directed numerous amazing underground short films starring the most influential bands coming from rap and electro culture or cinema including Oxmo Puccino, Justice and Vincent Cassel.

In 2006, his first feature, Sheitan starring Leila Bekhti, Vincent Cassel and Roxane Mesquida, premieres at Tribeca Film Festival. Selected at TIFF the film is sold to forty territories. Sheitan is an explosive cocktail of transgressive and sexy images, dark humor and pure terror.

In 2010, Kim returns to Tribeca and wins the Jury Award with the ferocious juvie prison drama Dog Pound.

2014, with Smart Ass, Kim signs a cynic and punchy comedy about three students launching a prostitution network in the biggest European Business School.

In 2017, Kim came back with Oro, a six episodes TV series shot in Amazonia, telling the rise and fall of a young gold digger in the middle of the rain forest.

Kim recently shot one of 2018 most viewed music video in Europe for the rap band PNL and another one in Atlanta for Lil Reek x Brondinski.
