FOREWARD

In commemoration of one of the most iconic hip-hop groups in history and their classic 1992 self titled album; House of Pain and Diamond Supply Co. will release a collaborative project celebrating the 25th anniversary of 'HOUSE OF PAIN'.

The 1990's were truly the Golden Era of both hip-hop & skateboarding. And it is no surprise that to this day they still have a massive impact on fashion, music, and lifestyles around the world.

Without question House of Pain's musical influence has been seen throughout hip-hop and youth culture for decades . Stylistically through their fashion, sonically and visually through their music and videos, House of Pain has made a major impact that is celebrated globally.. Their infamous single Jump Around from 1992 is one of the most recognizable hip-hop tracks ever recorded and released.

Music, art, fashion, and skateboarding culture all go hand in hand and we commemorate that fact with this Diamond x House Of Pain capsule collection.
