Active Lifestyle Underwear

Kevin Durant and Shaun Neff introduce an underwear collection engineered for optimal comfort to support you through the daily journey of your active lifestyle. In examining the underwear market, we identified a gap between casual underwear & high-performance athletic underwear. By using premium fabrics, an ergonomic front pouch, and three custom inseams we've created the most exceptional undergarments in the market today.

I'm excited to work with the team at Neff to design my own collection of designer underwear. It will reflect my personal style combined with Neff's focus on youth culture.
